Pen to Paper Writing Retreat

Michigan Campus Compact, Michigan State University and Indiana Campus Compact are hosting the third Pen to Paper Writing Retreat: Writing With, For and About Service- and Community-Engagement. This event will be held Thursday, October 22, 2015 – Friday, October 23, 2015 at Bay Pointe Inn, Shelbyville, MI on scenic Gun Lake.

Pen to Paper is an academic writing retreat designed to provide time, space, and resources to help faculty, professional staff and graduate students working on (or planning for) journal manuscripts related to service – and community- engagement. The two-day retreat provides participants with time to discuss ideas with journal editors, receive mentoring from senior faculty coaches, share ideas with peers, and write.

Call for Submissions - The Engaged Faculty Institute Curriculum

California Campus Compact (CACC) and Campus Compact of the Mountain West (CCMW) are collaborating with Community-Campus Partnerships for Health (CCPH) to re-design the Faculty Toolkit for Service Learning in Higher Education, originally published in 2007, to create the Engaged Faculty Institute Curriculum. They're looking for best practices and innovations from the field to include as case studies and resources within the EFI curriculum. All submissions must come from CCPH or Campus Compact members and can be submitted via this brief survey.

Call for Community-Based Syllabi for Updated Database on Compact.org

Campus Compact has re-organized the syllabus database on the new Compact.org. You can now search for syllabi using a variety of fields including type of instruction, institution type and more.

The easily searchable database contains more than 400 syllabi of courses using service-learning and other community-engagement approaches. We are actively seeking new syllabi. Please send syllabi directly to Maggie Grove at mgrove@compact.org. Check out the new Resource Library on Compact.org
